Mahmoud Reda 1999

On a momentous occasion such as this, International Dance Day, I fail to find adequate words that can touch the heights of this fine art, Dance. Perhaps the best way for one to express those feelings would be... to dance.

With this Message from Egypt, I pay tribute to all those who have devoted their lives to this most refined art. It is a great honour for me to include myself as one of them. I earnestly hope that the coming millenium will see the flourishing of all arts and in particular...Dance.
