

Gloria (Magpie Dance)

Working in partnership with the Royal Opera House, Magpie Dance, a company of dancers with learning disabilities, present Gloria. This piece is based on Sir Kenneth MacMillan's First World War ballet of the same name and was created to mark Remembrance Day, November 2019. The work-in-progress was livestreamed for World Ballet Day 2019 and this excerpt was performed at The Place, London, 22nd February 2020.
